Rosemary Nebesky Memorial Scholarship - Application 2025-26

For Carson City students age 5-17 at time of application

Scholarship is to further the applicant's music education (for example: lessons, workshop, summer camp, master class). Lessons can be in person or remote. Amount $250 to $1,000.

Scholarship funds will be paid to the teacher or program, not to the individual applicant. If award includes travel expenses, it will be paid on reimbursement basis.

Applicant must be enrolled in school instrumental music program unless student is home-schooled or if school does not have an instrumental music program. A waiver of this requirement can be requested with written explanation signed by the school instrumental music instructor.

Students may reapply each year, but no more than two scholarships will be awarded to any individual.
